

Tuesday, October 28th, 6:00 – 8:00 PM

Presented in conjunction with Neighborhood Watch Groups of Syracuse

Richard S. Hartunian, United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, together with other federal law enforcement agencies, will discuss federal efforts to combat crime and keep your neighborhoods safe.

- Early recognition and reporting of potential terrorist activity is the first line of defense against those whom intend to harm residents of New York State. Learn what you can do to help.
- Find out what is being done about gun violence among gangs along with efforts to get drugs off the streets.
- Learn what Syracuse Truce is doing to reduce gun violence and change community norms around gun violence.
- Juvenile crime is a great concern in Syracuse neighborhoods. Find out what initiatives are in place to prevent juvenile offenders from repeatedly committing crimes.
- What can be done to protect our young people from internet predators?
- Determine how to respond to the scams that come in the mail, over the internet or on the phone.
- Are there really counterfeit bills circulating into local businesses and what should we do?

Find out the answers to these questions and more. Meet agency leaders not only from the U.S. Attorney's Office, but also from many other federal and local law enforcement agencies. Join in the learning and community discussion on these key topics affecting the quality of life in your neighborhood.
